

Checklist – Questions to Ask Yourself About the Space or Project

These questions were designed to help you begin to think about what you would like the newly created space or project to look like and what additional benefits you need. There are many additional considerations when it comes to the actual planning, but for now, these are just some general concepts to consider.

What specific benefit do you want from the Space? _____

Are you planning on reselling the property? _____

Are you just updating the Space? _____

How do you want the Space to function? What are some of the activities you envision from this Space? _____

What kind of 'look' do you want? Traditional, Contemporary, European, Country, Colonial, Casual Elegance, Eclectic, Exotic or Other _____

What color tones do you prefer? Warm, Cool, Vibrant, Neutral, Black, White or Other _____

What do you like most about the current Space? _____

What do you dislike most about the current Space? _____

How do you want to change this Space? _____

Does the traffic or workflow for this area need to be changed? _____

Do you prefer wood ____, laminate ____, metal ____ cabinetry?

If wood cabinetry, do you prefer light ____ or dark ____ wood?

If wood cabinetry, do you prefer painted ____ or faux ____ finish?

What kind of activities do you envision for this Space? _____

If the cabinetry is to have countertops, what would you prefer – granite __, laminate __, concrete __, glass __, tile __, corian or similar __, stone __ or other __

Is the current lighting adequate? _____
